OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Connecticut to lead in the President's Favour---Negro Suffrage not allowed in deference to the South---Senator Sherman on Congress---His Policy---Amendment, based on Voters, will be attempted---Senator Stockton's Case---Johnson's Policy in the Northwest---Winter Davis' Letters.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

It is thought by some shrewd politicians, of both parties, that Connecticut will lead off in April in favor of the policy of President Johnson. There is hardly a chance for the change as yet. The Republicans have all the advantages of organization and humbug and corruption. No one ever witnessed an election in a Northern State who was not led to doubt whether free and unrestricted suffrage is safe and wise. Connecticut will not permit blacks to vote, though she has but a few hundred of them. Some say this was Democratic deference to the feelings and views of the South. But however this may be, Senator Sherman, of Ohio, in his electioneering speech at New Haven, the other day, took some pains to show that the majority of the Union members of Congress was opposed to, and would not permit, any infringement upon the right of a State to regulate the subject of suffrage for itself. So it is settled that Congress will not undertake to force negro suffrage upon a State. The reason given by Senator Sherman is not of a national and loyal character. It is not because it would be offensive and impracticable in regard to the South, but because it would be impolitic, in a party sense, in the North. His own State, in negro worship, is rather behind the Sumner standard.

Negro suffrage, it is clear enough, will not be forced upon the South. But it is equally plain that Congress will attempt very soon to pass, by the requisite two-thirds, an amendment which will base representation on voters.

It is only necessary to pass it through the Senate that Mr. Stockton, of New Jersey, (Democrat,) should be ousted from his seat, which may or may not be done, and that Mr. Wright, the other Democratic Senator from that State, who is now supposed to be moribund, should be succeeded by another Republican; and that, in addition to this gain, the half dozen Sumner Radicals should come over to it. They intend to carry that amendment. They will "fight it out on this line if it takes all summer."—Cholera will not expel them, while they have any chance for success.

Private accounts from the West and also from the East show something like a silver lining on the clouds that hover over us. Some changes are going on in the Northwest that will favor the Johnson policy.

The reproduction of a letter of the late H. Winter Davis exhibits and may perpetuate the bitter spirit that animated him. If people believe in his warnings, they would go for renewal of war instead of reconstruction. It is the policy of the dominant party in Congress to promote these ideas until after the Presidential election. KAPPA.

From Washington.

THE NEW JERSEY SENATORIAL CASE—A NEW SUFFRAGE BASIS TO BE PASSED.

"Iota," of the Baltimore Sun, states that, should the decision of the New Jersey Senatorial case be adverse to the Conservative (Mr. Stockton,) a Republican will be chosen in his place. Mr. Wright, of the same State, will not probably be able to resume his seat, and his death would create another vacancy for the Republican Legislature of New Jersey to fill.—Thus the Democrats may lose two Senators and the Republicans gain two, making a change of four. The Radical Senators who voted against their Republican friends on the representative amendment, because it recognized the right of a State to exclude the blacks from suffrage, have struck hands with the majority in favor of another amendment, which bases suffrage on voters. So there is some probability that before this session terminates the amendment about to be reported will pass both Houses by a vote of two-thirds.

The amendment will curtail the existing representation basis of the lately slaveholding States by the exclusion of the "three-fifths" of lately slaves from enumeration, besides denying to them representation for the other two-fifths—that is, all those who should not become voters. This is said by some to be acceptable to the President; but it is not likely that any amendment would be made while the parties deeply interested in it are unrepresented in Congress.

As long as there is any probability of an agreement between the Republicans and Radicals upon any constitutional amendment, so long will the Senators refuse to terminate the session.

THE STEWART RESOLUTIONS DENOUNCED BY SOUTHERN SENATORS.

A special dispatch to the New York Daily News says:

Only six of the Southern Senators elect are now here. Among them, Messrs. Parsons, Sharkey and Call. But they all say, that not only they, but also the people of the South, are unanimously opposed to the insulting and degrading proposal contained in Stewart's resolutions. They are not disposed to have their seats in Congress bought for them at such a price.

THE SUPSOSED QUANTRELL IS STILL IN DURANCE.

The prisoner, in his manner and personal appearance, bears a most striking resemblance to the guerrilla leader. He is a tall, well made man, about thirty-five years of age, of a pure blonde complexion, golden hair and beard, and bright laughing blue eyes. His manners are refined and gentlemanly, and he speaks with a very pleasing address and quiet persuasive eloquence, and in this respect more than any other trait does he resemble the guerrilla Quantrell. Whether he is the man they take him for, or merely the victim of an accidental resemblance, time alone will discover.

LETTER FROM H. S. FOOTE.

The Hon. Henry S. Foote, formerly of the Confederate Senate, has written a letter denying the report that he was the author of the resolutions of Senator Stewart, (his son-in-law,) proposing general amnesty for universal suffrage. He says, however, that he warmly approves them, and entertains the opinion that they contain terms to which the Southern States could honorably and advantageously accede.—Mr. Foote's opinion will not be considered of authority or weight in behalf of the South.

IMPORTANT SALE.

THE subscriber, as the administrator with the will annexed of the late John S. Brown of Pitt county, offers for sale,

Seventeen hundred and sixty Acres of land on Swift Creek, in Pitt county: There are 200 acres of the land cleared, with comfortable building. 700 acres of the tract is well set, with the finest Cypress in the State. The balance of the tract is high Pinewoods land, well set with pitch pine, and offers the finest facility for making turpentine and tar, of any in the eastern part of the State.

This body of land lies in a thickly settled and thriving section of Pitt county and is offered for sale under the provisions of the will of my said testator. I am authorized to do so and will sell the same at private sale, if I can do so.

ALSO, 100 acres of Piney land, on the North side of Tar River, adjoining the lands of Wm. Shivers and others.

Unless these lands are sold previously, I will offer them for sale at public auction, at the Court House door, in Greenville, Pitt County, on Tuesday, of next May County Court, being the 8th. day of the month.

A liberal credit will be given, which will be made known on the day of sale.

Any person wishing to purchase privately can communicate with me by letter or otherwise, at Greenville, Pitt County, N. C.

E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,

OR

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufaced, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs H. R. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime for four years.—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing.

"Very respectfully,

PROSPECTUS

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the very FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	35 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL,
SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Monday, March 26, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every evening (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

First of April.

On this day, we shall reluctantly discontinue the Sentinel to all who have not paid. We do not do this because we doubt the integrity of any one, or because we think our friends will not pay us, but we are compelled to this course from sheer necessity. Every thing we use we are compelled to pay the cash for; hence, we are obliged to do business strictly on the cash principle, after the 31st day of the present month.

We find that, from haste or other causes, errors have occurred on our mail books. In all cases we are glad to rectify errors. If any error, occurs, write us at once, and we will correct it promptly.

The Stewart Compromise.

We have already expressed our decided disapprobation of the resolutions of Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, offered in the U. S. Senate, proposing a general amnesty to all participators in the late revolution, provided the States consent to universal suffrage, without regard to color. It is understood that all the Southern representatives in Washington oppose and reject the proposition. It is also understood that it finds no favor with President Johnson, or with his supporters in or out of Congress, and that it is only acceptable to the extreme radicals.

In this State, the proposition receives no favor, unless we may set down the Progress as approving it, from an occasional remark in that direction.

The proposition is, first, at war with the Constitution in two particulars. It takes out of the hands of the President the power of pardon and transfers it to Congress. This delicate power has been conferred upon the President alone by the Constitution, and until that instrument is amended in this particular, no other branch of the government can exercise it, nor can the President transfer it to another. It is believed that the President has already determined to grant pardon and amnesty to the great mass of those embraced in the fourteen exceptions of his amnesty proclamation, reserving for future consideration, the final determination of the cases of those regarded most offensive as leaders in the revolution, either to be tried or pardoned. We believe that the great moral ends of the government in subduing the revolutionists have been fully accomplished—that nothing more remains to be done by the further shedding of blood or fixing upon the guilty any punishment. We are, therefore, strongly in favor of universal amnesty, believing that it will accomplish more in eradicating all bitterness and ill feeling than any other course.

It has, however, been given out that those who claim to be par excellence Union men in the South, and in this State, are opposed to a general amnesty. They have not yet become satiated with blood—their bitterness of feeling towards those who cannot affiliate with them, is still kept up at fever-heat. Nothing but the possession of all the offices, and the ostracism of those who oppose them, will satisfy them, and hence all exhibitions of mercy and forbearance on the part of the President are offensive to them.

Universal suffrage is not only offensive to the Constitution, but is at war with the genius of the government, and the teachings of the fathers of the Republic. Just in proportion as suffrage is extended without regard to the qualifications of the voter, in the same ratio the constitutional powers of the Federal republic become weakened, and the tendency to mobocracy increases. Hence, no greater calamity could befal the country than the introduction of universal suffrage. But independently of the direful effects of negro suffrage upon the character of the government, there are social and moral objections, which can never be overcome in the South, by any plea which the North may set up.

The South will grant to the colored race all that is equal and just, for the maintenance and preservation of their rights as freemen. It will concede to them whatever is necessary for their security and improvement, both in mental and moral culture, but all concessions of social or political equality will be rigidly and rightfully withheld, until that period in the history of the negro race, if it ever arrive, when so rich a heritage shall have been purchased by such evidences of improvement and qualification as will entitle them to it. Any attempt to enforce this on the part of Congress will entail upon the South all the horrors of a war between the races, which must result in the utter extinction of the black race.

If the North desires the equality of the races—the obliteration of all moral, social and political distinctions in regard to color, let it have it, with all the practical results of amalgamation, decline and ruin. But the South will never submit to such an admixture of Anglo-Saxon blood and deterioration, as must necessarily result from the removal of all social, moral and political distinctions between the two races. Before granting this, either the South must become depopulated by the emigration of the whites, or it would submit quietly to be taxed for the removal of the blacks to a territory of their own, where they would be obliged to acknowledge no superior.

GOLD closed to-day, in New York, at $1.35½ to $1.35¾.

Munchausen Redivivus.

It would be laughable, were it not that our people are in no condition to regard such things so lightly, to read the ridiculous and extravagant falsehoods that are being perpetrated by anonymous scribblers, sojourning in or travelling through the South, and published in Northern newspapers. One would suppose that the palpable mendacity of most of these effusions would disgust even the most credulous old woman that was ever afflicted with negrophobia in Boston or Nantucket, but, unfortunately, some people are very apt to believe what they want to believe. And when Senator Sumner sets the example, on the floor of the United States Senate, of reading them by wholesale in the greedy ears of Radical malignants and to a gaping audience of negroes and negro-worshippers, it is perhaps not surprising that even the most absurd stories should find ready credence among numbers of the people.

It is reserved for a late correspondent of the Wisconsin State Journal, writing from Wilmington, to cap the climax of falsehood and of shameless effrontery. That paper publishes what it says are extracts from a private letter, written to a prominent member of the Legislature by an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau in North Carolina. We subjoin two or three of these extracts, in order to show the nauseating stuff of which these letters, in general, are composed, and for the purpose of calling the attention of the Chief of the Bureau in this State to the infamous libels upon our people of which one of his subordinates has been guilty. We believe it to be the wish of that gentleman to cultivate the most amicable relations with our citizens, and he will appreciate the probable effects of such unlicensed slander and vituperation.

We begin with falehood No. 1:

"I wish you could visit this country and see what a terrible system of anarchy reigns. Every day has its own report of wrongs, robbery, and murder committed upon the defenseless negro. In each county is organized a body of armed men called "local police," whose almost constant business is to rob the negro, dividing the spoils among themselves. If a strange darkey is found in the limits of their district, woe be unto him; he is a lawful prize, and his personal property, from his greenbacks to his tobacco and pocket handkerchief, fall into their eager hands."

This, of course, is manufactured out of the whole cloth, and contains a wholesale libel upon "each" county in the State. But it is nothing to falsehood No. 2, which we proceed to give. We have had misgivings as to whether we should admit so indelicate a paragraph into our columns; but our motive will be appreciated, when we say that, in doing so, we desire to call the attention of all fair-minded and decent men to the monstrous aspersions that are, with impunity, being cast upon our people.

"I saw a white man in Raleigh, a month ago, who actually had fifty negro children, and one of them was the child of his negro daughter, thus actually being father and grandfather to the same child. This is thought nothing of here. In fact, in private conversation, "gentlemen" will acknowledge their relationship to the negro in the presence of their wives and daughters, without calling a blush upon their gentle Southern cheeks. They are so accustomed to having half-brothers among their slaves, that it in no manner seems to affect their respect for their common father. I called at a lady's house last week, and of course the "negro" was introduced, and she related an anecdote of their housemaid's wedding. She said they were much interested in her, and dressed her as nicely as a white bride, because she was her niece! Her young lady daughter was in the room, and two ladies visiting her. They thought nothing of it! What do you think?"

Again:

"When the army leaves, all Northern men, all loyal Southern men, and all the negroes who can, will go with them. I have heard the chivalry say that when the Yankees left they'd "make the niggers howl"—and they will; and if the Government intend to guarantee their freedom, it must be done with Yankee bayonets, which are the only arguments these noble men succumb to. Even the post-master and custom-house officer, who have taken the oath prescribed for such officers, are as disloyal in their talk as any men you ever saw in private life. They hate the old flag and its supporters, and although cringing enough when they come into our office, will pass us without speaking if they can do so."

This last paragraph accounts for the milk in the cocoa-nut. The creature who could be guilty of such wanton villification of a helpless people is evidently no gentleman. Our people, great and small, are not slow, generally, in detecting the absence of those traits that go to make up one. This correspondent has doubtless been found deficient in all the necessary qualities, and accordingly has been "passed by" by all respectable people. Hinc illæ lachrymæ.

Northern people, those of the army and others, sojourning with or resident among us, who manifest, by their daily walk and conversation, a spirit of acrimony and enmity towards a community, must expect to be "passed by." When a contrary spirit is exhibited, we believe that our people are disposed not only to appreciate it highly, but to show their appreciation of it.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

We discontinued the telegraphic dispatches, because we got too little for too much. The press agents seemed not to know what was desirable to our readers and what was not. We were paying at the rate of $800 per year for what we got, which did not pay us or our readers.

We shall, however, avail ourselves of special dispatches from New York and Washington, so soon as we can make the arrangement, and we have been promised the benefit of any private dispatches received by our friends. Quotations of the price of gold and other articles will be found in our columns.

Time of Publication.

We shall return on Wednesday morning to our former plan of issuing the Daily Sentinel in the morning, finding that the present arrangement does not well suit. Our paper will be in time for the Western and Fayetteville mails in the evening, and our press will be stopped to receive any additional news by Northern mail. In this regard it will have the advantages of both an evening and morning paper.

The Civil Rights Bill.

The latest indications from Washington are that the President will veto this most obnoxious bill. This impression is strengthened by the fact that the National Intelligencer, which is supposed to occupy a semi-official relation to the Administration, in its issue of the 24th., avows its hostility to the measure and dissects it in trenchant style. Setting out with the declaration that it is a bill "to abolish the States of the Union," the Intelligencer rests its opposition to it on several distinct grounds,—in which, we are induced to hope, it but reflects the opinions of the Executive:

1. It abolishes all State judicature. All offences under, and causes affecting persons protected by, the act, are cognizable exclusively by Federal courts. It covers almost every civil transaction of society, not to say social, moral and political relations. As it applies to all native Americans without exception, save Indians not taxed, there is no person but has a right to invoke it, nor any class of cases in which it might not, by the constructions of the forum, be pleaded. And whenever it is put in issue, the exclusive Federal jurisdiction supervenes, and it becomes a misdemeanor to prosecute the suit elsewhere than in a Federal court.

2. It establishes negro superiority. If, from any cause, the necessary police regulations of a State, in its purely local and domestic concerns, should operate to recognize a distinction of color or race, however indirectly, this law may be invoked successfully to resist it with the army and navy of the United States.

But even that is not the end of it. It would be an offence to recognize, in State law, or even in private contract, a distinction of color or race "under color of any custom." The Intelligencer thus elaborates this point:

"This is, we believe, an unprecedented provision. It carries Federal interference into privacies into which the most local and domestic laws never intrude. It might—nay, does—daily happen, that bargains are made between whites and colored men, which are indispensable to the well-being of the latter, yet which would be unintelligible without recourse to the custom of distinguishing on account of race or color—an observance of which is made penal by this statute. The very customs of a community are to be made criminal and amenable to an authority foreign to their locality. All the dealings of man with man in society depend for their interpretation upon local custom. Yet by this extraordinary provision the customs of communities—the very canvass on which the picture of social order is painted—are to be perverted into agencies of strife, heart-burning, and mischief. "Customs are stronger than laws," is a proverb which we might recall with a shudder if we conceive such a law in actual and efficient operation. Let us consider how this provision would operate. For example, at a public sale of pews in a church, a negro or a Chinaman born in this country might offer the highest bid. The custom of the church might be against selling to one of either race or color, and if the bidder should bring an action in the State court, there is no doubt he would fail to establish a right to the pew. But here is a right withheld on account of race or color. The judge who heard, the jury who decided, the lawyers who advocated, the church society and all who contributed in anything to the deprivation of the right, would be obnoxious to the penalties prescribed in this statute."

3. The proposed statute is grossly unconstitutional.

4. It authorizes the President to appoint spies without number; i. e. "officers whom he may specially empower." He may put one on every street corner and at every mile post in the Union, without transcending the letter of this law. It authorizes the Federal courts to multiply their commissioners without limit, and empowers each one of these to appoint as many "suitable persons" (detectives) as they choose in every county, to make arrests, and provides a compensation for both, so liberal as to expose them to irresistible temptation to oppress. Even these despicable hirelings have the power to call the army to their aid. One of these could arrest the Governor of a sovereign State, and the county or township commissioner of the United States court could put him in jail without violating the language of the bill.

The President has now had this iniquitous measure under advisement for more than a week. It is reasonable to suppose that he is preparing his objections to it. Had it met his approval, the probability is that he would immediately have returned it with his signature. We trust, in a day or two, to have the gratification of announcing that Mr. Johnson has again interposed himself as a break-water against the surging waves of Radical fury and malignity.

REAL ESTATE BANK.—If those interested in the establishment of a Real Estate Bank wish to give publicity to their views, they can do so in the columns of the Daily News, upon the same terms that other advertisements pay.

Subjects of general interest we publish without charge, but all private matters must be paid for at advertising rates.—Goldsboro News.

Does our worthy cotemporary refer to the Real Estate Bank, which we have proposed in our columns, or does it refer to a proposition for a private institution in that place?

The institution which we have proposed is purely designed as a public benefit for the whole people of our State. It looks to no benefit whatever to any individual, except such as the sureties or stockholders may derive in common with the public, and in the ultimate settlement of its affairs, it properly managed, for the risk they take in becoming securities for the Land Loan Company.

We allude to the above, for the reason that we are thoroughly satisfied that it is the only feasible plan which promises relief to our people, and in this we are sustained by some of the best financiers in the State. We should be glad to have the co-operation of our intelligent cotemporary, in its discussion and support. Moreover, we beg that the entire press of the State will give our editorial, in Saturday's issue, a place in their columns, and, if they cannot agree with us, we wish to know their objections.

Hon. D. W. Vorhees has just returned to Washington from attending the State Convention in Indiana, and gives cheering accounts of the aspect of political affairs in that State.

The Freedmen.

The position of "A Lawyer" in to-day's issue, in regard to the status of the negroes and persons of color, under the new code, will, perhaps, surprise some persons, and none more so than some of the members of the Legislature. The fact that all existing laws in regard to them were repealed by the new bill, seems undoubtedly to place them within the purview of the common law, until the law which fixes their status is in force, which cannot be until the jurisdiction of our Courts is acknowledged fully by the Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau or the Federal government. If any legal gentleman can point out any error in the positions of "a Lawyer," our columns are open to him.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C. }
March 24th, 1866.

At a Meeting of the Philomathesian Society, March 23rd, 1866, the Following Resolutions were Adopted.

WHEREAS, During the late war with the United States, a large number of the members of this Association have laid down their lives, in obedience to the call of their country; and have, by their self denial, their devotion to principle, and their constancy in the hour of trial, earned a place among the heroes and martyrs of history; therefore,

Resolved, That we will ever cherish the memories of our gallant brethren who have fallen in defence of their homes, their altars, and their firesides—of the land they loved, and the liberties they inherited; and that we will assiduously collect, and record in a book, entitled the "Memorial," such authentic sketches, biographical notices, and other reminiscences, of our lamented associates, as shall be alike interesting to the living and honorable to the dead.

Resolved, That in promotion of this object, the relatives and friends of the deceased be, and they are hereby requested, to communicate to us any information in their possession, or within their reach; and that the members of the Society throughout the country are earnestly solicited to interest themselves in collecting and forwarding materials for the "Memorial."

JOHNSTON COUNTY LAND FOR SALE.

I offer for sale the two tracts of land known as the Zack Hill place, three and a half miles from Boon Hill, and on the Road to Lowell Factory, containing in both 224 acres. The improvements are a log dwelling house, smoke house, and stables, and a good well of water. The land is desirable for cultivation, as it is immediately upon Little River, where can be found any amount of the richest loam; and also very valuable for its pine forest, only a small quantity of which has been boxed, and will yield a crop of Turpentine the present year.

A good bargain may be had, as the proprietor is disposed to sell it cheap for cash.

LANCASTER'S COTTON SEED PLANTER.

THE BEST MACHINE EVER INVENTED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Several hundred Sold in the Cotton growing counties in Eastern North Carolina and Virginia, in the three years preceding the war.

A NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION!

The Scarcity of Cotton Seed

Should induce every one intending to plant cotton the ensuing season, to use this machine. It embraces the following points, which are fully attested in the numerous testimonials given by those who used it in 1859—'69:

1st. Perfect Simplicity. The seed are carried out of the Hopper by a grooved cylinder—which cylinder is turned by two light wheels rolling upon the ground, has no cog wheels, bands, chains, or anything to get out of order; has an admirable furrow opener, into which furrow the Seed fall at a depth of one inch or less, and the furrow is covered up by a board, or verer, or roller, as the operator may prefer.

2d It sows with great regularity and precision if the Seed are well rubbed, and in a very narrow furrow, rendering the chopping out and subsequent cultivation very easy work, compared with that which follows hand planting.

3d. It is a great saver of Seed, being able to secure a good stand with half the quantity of Seed usually required in hand planting, and this should be an important consideration.

4th. Its perfect adaption to negro management is its crowning excellence, and many of the testimonials refer to this very desirable feature.

5th. Its lightness, both to team and hand, and its cheapness, together with its simplicity in construction, rendering it easy of repair by any farm hand, are strong points in its favor, and are not combined in any other Cotton Planter known to the Inventor of this.

☞ Circulars giving full particulars, together with numerous testimonials from those who have thoroughly tested this machine, will be furnished upon application by mail or otherwise.

Full directions go with each machine, although the Planter is so simple as really not to require them. It may be necessary to say that this machine will sow rubbed seed only.

When more convenient to the purchaser, we willship from New York, the freight from thence to Newbern and Wilmington, being about one dollar each by steamer. The freight per Railroad from Norfolk to Goldsboro, or Raleigh, is also about one dollar each. Persons living beyond these points can calculate for greater distances.

The Machines are sold at Thirty Dollars each, delivered on Vessel or Railroad, in Norfolk or New York, and Cash or Sight Drafts must accompany each order. Orders promptly filled for any number of machines.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We call attention to the change of schedule on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

Worth & Daniel, Wilmington, announce themselves as Agents of the new line of Steamships between that point and New York. This line offers superior inducements to shippers.

B. P. Williamson & Co., announce themselves as Agents for the sale of Portable Grist Mills.

S. R. Borum, of Norfolk, Va., advertises Lancaster's Cotton Seed Planter, an admirable invention, and a North Carolina invention at that. Mitchell and Allen are the agents in this State.

W. Robert Andrews proposes to sell off his valuable and select stock at New York cost, expenses added.

It will be seen that the Philomathesian Society, of Wake Forest College, contemplate collecting and preserving memorials of their gallant brethren who fell in the late struggle. This is a most commendable movement, and reflects credit upon the living, while it will tend to keep fresh and green the memories of the heroic dead.

SUPERIOR COURTS.—The Spring Term of Nash Superior Court was held last week,—his Honor, Judge Fowle, presiding. No business of importance was transacted. The charge of the Judge to the Grand Jury is spoken of in terms of high commendation.

This is the week of Johnson Court, and the term for Wake County will be held next week.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The merchants and business men of Newbern are taking steps for the organization of a Board of Trade. A meeting for the purpose was held on the 23rd, and a Committee appointed to report by-laws and rules for the government of the Board. The Committee consists of Judge Manly, Col. Heaton, Messrs. Disosway, Hunt, W. S. Walker, Gould, Tiddy, Flanner and Taylor.

WE LEARN, from the Danville Times, that T. A. Donaho, Esq., Senator from Caswell, has resigned his seat as such. Mr. Donaho made a useful member.

CHARLOTTE AND S. C. R. R.—The Charlotte Times learns from Col. Wm. Johnston, the President of this Road, that the work of rebuilding is in rapid process of completion. The bridge across the Catawba will be ready for the trains to pass over by the 10th of May, and the entire track re-laid to Columbia—thus making the connection with Charleston perfect.

It justly adds: "Col. Johnston is probably one of the very best Railroad Presidents in the country, and to his efforts, intelligently directed, is due the excellent financial condition of this road, and its rapid and satisfactory reconstruction."

WILMINGTON MARKETS, 23RD.—Sales to-day of 162 bbls. Turpentine at $10 for yellow dip, ₱ 280 lbs.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE—One small lot changed hands at 50 cents ₱ gallon for white in country packages.

No sales in Rosin or Cotton.

TAR—Sales of 166 bbls. at $1 50 ₱ bbl.

PITCH—A lot of 50 bbls. sold at $3.75 ₱ bbl. —Journal.

NEWBERN MARKETS, 23rd.—Owing to unfavorable advices from the North, the Cotton market has a downward tendency. Very little is offering, and buyers are holding on in hopes of a further decline. We note sales the past week of only nine (9) bales, at prices raging from 32 @33c. for good middling; 28@30c. for ordinary.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE—None offering and prices merely nominal. No sales to report since our last.

CRUDE TURPENTINE—Receipts this week have exceeded those of the previous week, and prices have been fully maintained, notwithstanding the decline in Naval Stores North. We note sales of about 75 bbls. Dip at 4.75; 225 bbls. Scrape at 2.75@3.00.

ROSINS—No sales to report. Quotations nominal.—Times.

PETERSBURG MARKETS 23rd.—There has been more doing in Tobacco the past few days, and prices yesterday and to-day were some better, with more animation in the market.

COTTON.—Market dull and prices are again lower. We quote at 30 to 35 cents. Strictly prime might bring a little more. The Factories here have all stopped work except one.

CORN.—Market dull. We quote small lots at 90c.

FLOUR.—Keeps dull at 9@15c., according to quality.

WHEAT.—We cannot hear of any sale.

GOLD.—Buying price $1.25; selling do $1.30.

SILVER.—Buying price $1.20; selling do $1.25. Mexican dollars $1.45.

VA. BANK BILLS.—5@80.

N. C. BANK BILLS.—5@50.

GA. AND S. C. BANK BILLS.—10@30.—Express.

An Act to regulate the terms of the Supreme Court and for other Purposes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly, of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, as follows:

SEC. 1. That the terms of the Supreme Court shall be hereafter held in the City of Raleigh twice in each year, beginning on the second Monday's of January and June instead of the terms now prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. Causes depending in said Court, which have been discontinued, in consequence of the failure of the Judges to hold any of its regular terms, shall be reinstated on the docket by the Clerk.

SEC. 3. The publication of this act in some newspaper published in the City of Raleigh, for six successive weeks after its ratification, shall be deemed notice to the parties, their Agents and Attorneys.

SEC. 4. This act shall be in force, from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 10th. day of March A. D. 1866.

S. F. PHILLIPS, S. H. C.
C. S. WINSTEAD, S. S.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this Office.

Given under my hand the 16th. day of March A. D. 1866

R. W. BEST,
March 17-118-3w. Sec'y. of State

GENERAL NEWS.

Attorney-General Speed has given an opinion sustaining the original action of the Commissioner of Pensions, as to the right of pensioners restored to the rolls of the Southern agencies, on proof of continued loyalty throughout the war. All pensioners thus restored will now receive their pensions from the date of their last payment, on the former certificates, without interruption. By direction of the Secretary of the Interior, payment for the period from the 16th August, 1861, to the date of completing proof of loyalty, was suspended while awaiting the opinion of Attorney-General Speed, which has been adopted by the Department.

At an informal conference of Southern Senators now in Washington, it was agreed that Senator Stewart's resolution does not represent the wishes of the Southern people. They desire no further amendments to the Constitution.

OUTRAGES IN TENNESSEE.—The Nashville papers are full of news items pointing to great social disturbances and lawlessness throughout Tennessee. In Fayetteville a lady was dragged from her horse and horribly treated by some unknown person. In Chattanooga a white girl was shot while cooking supper in one of the camps. In the Jackson Whig of the 10th inst. we also find the following: "On last Saturday night a negro staggered up to Mr. John Fry and told him that he was stabbed to the heart, and fell dead. We learned on yesterday of another murder, where a negro boy was knocked in the head by another negro and instantly killed."

ESCAPE OF HEAD CENTRE STEPHENS.—It is stated in two letters received in New York that Head Centre Stephens escaped safely in a fishing smack, and is now on his way to America.

Bishop Soule is reported to be improving in health, but it is hardly probable that he will be able to attend the session of the General Conference.

A North Carolina merchant named Andrew Adams was recently garroted on Lower Market street, Cincinnati, and robbed of about $1,000. He says there were five or six persons engaged in the affair.

AS SCANTY AS THE GEORGIA COSTUME.—A newspaper correspondent, describing the costume of a belle at a recent ball, says: "Miss R., with that repugnance to ostentation in dress which is so peculiar to her sex, was attired in a simple white lace collar, fastened with a neat pearl button solitaire."

General Wade Hampton recently visited Columbia, South Carolina. He was in excellent health and spirits, and stated that the negroes were working well on his plantation in Louisiana.

Colonel Seth Williams, of the Adjutant General's office, whose name was familiar during the war, in connection with the official orders of the Army of the Potomac, having become deranged, his friends in Maine have consigned him to the Asylum at Augusta, which was endowed by his father.

The Latest Wrinkle in Fashionable Circles among the Northern belles is the wearing of small bells attached to their Jouvin gloves, for party costume. As they tinkle upon the promenade or in the dance, they remind us of a stanza in "Mother Goose:"

"With rings on her fingers,
And bells on her toes,
And she shall have music
Wherever she goes."

Justice is growing very blind. A man got a 21 years' sentence at Bangor, the other day, for stealing $2000, but Ketchum, who stole more than $2,000,000, was let off with four years and a half, and has now a good prospect of getting that trivial term abbreviated, through "executive clemency."

"All ye blackguards that isn't lawyers, leave the Court," said the crier of a court in Erin.

The city of Augusta, Ga., has imposed a tax of one thousand dollars per month on all gift enterprises.

It is stated that B. F. Butler is much alarmed in view of a visit from the Rinderpest to this country.

A GRAND JUBILEE.—The twenty-ninth of June, 1867, will be the eighteen hundredth anniversary of St. Peter's death. On that occasion the Pope is to convene all the bishops of Christendom to Rome, where a grand jubilee will be celebrated.

An order has been issued in Newbern closing all the colored schools and churches, to prevent the spreading of the small pox in that city.

The Alabama Legislature passed a tax law of $50 per annum on newsdealers who sell newspapers not published in the State.

"I don't miss my church so much as you suppose," said a young lady to her minister, who had called upon her during her illness, "for I make Betsey sit at my window as soon as the bell begins to chime, and tell me who are going to church, and whether they have got anything new."

The Andrew Johnson Club is growing rapidly in Washington.

Pennsylvania presents a bill against the Federal Government of $900,000, for money expended by the former in repelling invasion.

A person in Albany describes the State Legislature assembled there as "Faro's Host."

Among the debaters on an agricultural question, in the House, Thursday, were Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, who owns 3,000 sheep, and Mr. Bidwell, of California, who owns 18,000 acres of land. Ought to be well posted.

The New Orleans papers say there are in that city not less than seventy-five thousand freedmen.

It is reported that the awards for the arrest of the assassination conspirators will be distributed next week.

A daughter of the late James L. Petigrew, the South Carolina Unionist, is giving public readings in Washington.

H. B. Chaflin & Co., have paid tax on forty-two millions dollars sales. This is the largest business in the country.

"Negroes and Persons of Color," &c.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is plain that the first proviso to the 9th section of the act concerning negroes and persons of color, or of mixed blood, ratified on the 10th of this month, makes that section of the bill inoperative for the present. The proviso is in these words: "Provided, that this section shall not go into effect until jurisdiction in matters relating to freedmen shall be fully committed to the Courts of this State."—Those members who opposed this section, as well as those who advocated it, conceded that until full jurisdiction shall be committed to our Courts by some future action of the government of the United States, or some officer or department thereof, this section would be inoperative. Such action has not been taken. All the remaining sections of the bill go into operation on the 11th April next, being thirty days after the rise of the session, which took place on the 12th of this month.

By other sections of this act, all the statutes of the State declaring Negroes, Indians and persons of mixed blood incapable of being witnesses except in cases against each other, are repealed, whereby they are remitted to their rights at common law. At common law, the rights of these persons to testify in all suits were the same same as the rights of white men.

It follows, that on and after the 11th of April next, Negroes, Indians and other persons of mixed blood will be competent witnesses in all suits and indictments, whether all or any of the parties be white or black, until the 9th. section be rendered operative by the restoration of full jurisdiction to our courts in matters relating to Freedmen. A LAWYER.

Mar. 26, 1866.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Senate—The Senate was occupied nearly all its session to-day with the case of Gen. Stockton, involving the retention of his seat. The Committee on the Judiciary had previously reported in his favor, but the question at issue was whether the incumbent could be legally elected to the Senate by a plurality instead of a majority of the votes cast by the joint meeting of the New Jersey Legislature. The Senate, by one majority, retained him in his seat. Gen. Stockton is a Democrat, and has thus triumphed over his opponents.

House.—The House, by a vote of 83 to 53, passed a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to exchange Treasury notes or other obligations for bonds either at home or abroad—the proceeds of which to be used only for retiring the former. The increase of the public debt is prohibited. Not more than ten millions of the United States bonds may be retired or cancelled within six months from the passage of the act, and thereafter not more than four millions in one month. The Senate has yet to act upon this bill.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music, if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass Instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, March 21, 1866.

To Holders of Coupons of North Carolina Bonds.

BY act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, ratified March 10th, 1866, I am directed to prepare and sell for not less than par, bonds of the State running thirty-four years, with Coupons bearing six per cent interest, payable semi-annually, of the denomination of $100, $500, and $1000, principal and interest untaxable, for the purpose of paying coupons now due and to become due in 1866, and bonds due and to fall due in 1865. By authority vested in the Public Treasurer, I designate New York as the place of payment.

Parties entitled, desirous of effecting the exchange authorized in said Act, will please communicate to me at once the amount and character of the securities which they wish to be funded, in order that I may know the number and denomination of the bonds which will be required. After the engraver shall furnish the blanks, the bonds will be prepared for issue, with little delay.

Under advice of the Attorney General, Coupons of bonds issued since, but under acts passed before, May 20th 1861, will be funded under the act of March 10th, 1866, Provided their identity is established, by being cut from the bonds in my presence, a provision necessary on account of the similarity to other Coupons, issued since May 20th, 1861.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

DAILY SENTINEL

WM. B. PELL, Proprietor.

A literary gentleman, who is engaged in writing a book on some events in the war, in which the guerilla Mosby was concerned, has recently had some correspondence with that noted personage, and a short time ago inquired of him if it would be safe for "a Black Republican—one dyed in the wool"—so he described himself—to make at the present time a horse-back journey through Virginia. In reply that famous rough-rider writes the gentleman as follows:

If you have any desire to visit the historic scenes of Virginia, I hope you will not be deterred by any apprehensions for your personal safety. You will be just as safe from molestation here as in the streets of Boston. Should you determine to visit Northern Virginia I would be glad to see you at my home; and I can at least promise you that you will not find me the monstrum horrendum of the Northern imagination. By-the-by, one of the regiments I most frequently encountered was from about Boston—the 2d Massachusetts, Col Lowell. I once met a detachment of it under the command of a Maj. Forbes, of Boston; and, although our encounter resulted in his overthrow, he bore himself with conspicuous gallantry, and I saw him wound one of my best men with his sabre. I also had an adventure with a Captain Barton, of Massachusetts, who served on General Eustace's staff, and interested myself to procure his exchange. * * * In the event of your visiting Virginia I shall be most happy to extend to you any facilities in my power for seeing places of interest, &c.

MAKING OTHERS HAPPY.—A mother who was in the habit of asking her children, before they retired for the night, what they had done to make others happy, found her two twin daughters silent. The question was repeated. "I can remember nothing good all this day, dear mother; only one of my schoolmates was happy because she had gained the head of the class, and I smiled on her, and ran to kiss her; so she said I was good." That is all, dear mother."—The other spoke still more timidly. "A little girl, who sat with me on the bench at school, has lost a little brother. I saw that, while she studied her lesson, she hid her face in her book and wept. I felt sorry, and laid my face on the same book and wept with her. Then she looked up and was comforted, and put her arms around my neck; but I do not know why she said I had done her good." "Come to my arms, my darling," said the mother; "to rejoice with those that rejoice, and weep with those that weep, is to obey our blessed Redeemer."

We never heard Fred Douglass speak but once. He is a pretty sharp darkie, well-formed, rather graceful, and entirely ready. On the occasion to which we allude, he spoke in Independence Square, in Philadelphia. His harangue was violent, made up chiefly of descriptions of the outrages practiced upon the slave by his master, and brought a very decided effect upon the crowd. Perceiving this, Fred took his advantage at the flood, went higher and higher into the region of eloquence. "Ah, my friends," he said, "I do not speak from hearsay. I stand before you a living—I was going to say a bleeding—witness to the truth of all I relate. If you could behold the stripes and scars upon my back." Just here an Irishman vociferated, "Hould on, Freddy, darling—is it truth you is telling us." The darkie orator lifted his finger tragically to heaven in the affirmative. "Oh, murder! did they lacerate you?" Fred answered that they did. "Did they thumb screw you?" Fred answered that they did. "Did they buck you like a shoat?" Fred answered that they did. "Begorra!" roared Pat, "if that be true, you must have been a d—d bad nigger." It closed the meeting in a general row.—Nashville Banner.

A CLERK'S MISTAKE.—An Ohio exchange relates the following funny mistake of clerk in a dry goods store:

In a certain store not over a thousand miles from here, the clerk, after returning from supper, commenced putting things to their places for the night, when he came to what he supposed was the "show image," a frame dressed in woman's clothes, and having very much the appearance of a femine in the back, took her very gently around the waist, calling her his old woman, with a few other remarks not commonly made by "young men" in the presence of ladies, when to his astonishment the supposed piece of wire-work turned round, and slapped him in the face for the gross insult he had perpetrated. The clerk, innocent as he was, could do nothing more than apologize for his mistake.

FIVE DAUGHTERS.—A gentleman had five daughters, all of whom he brought up to some respectable occupation in life. These daughters married, one after another, with the consent of their father. The first married a gentleman by the name of Mr. Poor, the second a Mr. Little, the third a Mr. Short, the fourth a Mr. Brown, and the fifth a Mr. Hogg. At the wedding of the latter, her sisters, with their husbands, were present. After the ceremonies of the wedding were over, the old gentleman said to his guests: "I have taken great pains to educate my daughters, that they might act well their part in life, and from their advantages and improvement, I fondly hoped that they would do honor to the family; and now I find that all my pains, cares and expectations, have turned to nothing but a poor, little, brown, short hog."

An orator, in appealing to the "bone and sinew," said: "My friends, I am proud to see around me to-night the hardy yeomanry of the land, for I love the agricultural interest of the country, and well may I love them, fellow citizens, for I was born a farmer—the happiest days of my youth were spent in the peaceful avocations of a son of the soil. If I may be allowed to use a figurative expression, my friends, I may say I was raised between two rows of corn."—"A punkin, by thunder!" exclaimed an inebriated chap, just in front of the stage.

THAT CHAP DIDN'T WRITE IT.—A young man of promise out in Wisconsin read the Declaration of Independence at a Fourth of July celebration. A rural critic was asked what he thought of it. "Well, he read it very well, but I don't believe that chap wrote it."

OPPOSED TO FRETTING.—A young widow, on being asked why she was going to get married so soon after the death of her first husband, replied:

"I do it to prevent fretting myself to death on account of dear Tom."

HOW TO MEET SLANDER.—A blacksmith having been slandered, was advised to apply to the courts for redress. He replied, with true wisdom:

"I shall never sue anybody for slander. I can go into my shop and work out a better character in six months than I could get in a court-house in one year."

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established
Ætna Company, of Hartford,
Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.
All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,234 33.
In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.
In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.
WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTNERSHIP under the name and style of Whitford, Dill & Co.,
for the transaction of a Shipping and General
Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.
We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.
☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.
All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered.

PROSPECTUS
OLD NORTH STATE.
"The Old North State Forever."

THE undersigned will commence the publication of a Daily and Weekly Newspaper, bearing the above title, in the city of Salisbury about the 10th of March next.
The Old North State will be, under our control, a firm and decided Union paper. But while it will be firm and decided in its support of the Union, and of all just and necessary measures tending to its complete restoration, it will yet be liberal and conservative. It will oppose radicalism from whatever quarter it may come. Confiding in the loyal intentions of the great body of the people of North Carolina, it will endeavor to soothe the asperities of the past by promoting among them a spirit of reconciliation and harmony.
Rejecting the exploded dogma of paramount State sovereignty, it will cheerfully support the National government in the exercise of every power necessary to the maintenance of its rightful authority, while it will ever contend against any encroachments upon the reserved rights of the States.
It will discuss all the various political issues of the day, but in doing this it will seek to avoid everything like partizan bitterness or personal vituperation. It will also strive to avoid that detestable practice, so common among politicians, of pandering to the passions and appealing to the prejudices of the multitude in order to accomplish partizan ends. It will endeavor to enlighten and direct aright public sentiment, by disseminating correct information, and by arguments addressed to the understanding—in short, it will endeavor to erect a high standard of political morality.
Its columns will be open for Political, Moral, Literary and Agricultural articles especially, and to the advertising public.
The Old North State will be printed on new type on the following

THE LOYALIST.

THE undersigned propose to publish in Louisburg, North Carolina, a Newspaper under the above denomination, The LOYALIST, as its name imports, will yield a firm, uniform, and fearless support to the Constitution of the United States, and all laws enacted in pursuance of that great instrument. To the decisions of the Supreme Court of the nation, in such questions as originate in the interpretation or application of the principles involved in our federal jurisprudence or policy, the Loyalist will accord its unqualified acquiescence, as to the will of the American people, duly expressed through the only legitimate, determinate and sufficient medium. Its general politics will be those so long and so thoroughly taught by the patriotism, the eloquence, and the wisdom of Clay, and his departed compeers, and so fearfully vindicated by the present melancholy and helpless condition of the communities so recently arrayed in arms against the integrity and harmony of our national union.
The Loyalist would make the institutions and independence, the material and moral dignity of the nation, as enduring and as brilliant as the stars whose images adorn the field and the folds of its flag. The Loyalist will also dedicate its energies and exert its abilities to ascertain and cherish the interests, as well as to develope the immense resources of North Carolina. To the cause of education, the general diffusion of knowledge, the elevation of the masses, and the religious culture of all within its influence, it will be a consistent and inflexible friend. Its editorial department will be conducted by gentlemen whose names will be announced in due time.
The LOYALIST will be issued weekly, carefully printed, of the size of the Raleigh "Daily Sentinel," and furnished to patrons at $3,00 per annum, payable on delivery of the first number. Subscriptions and communications respectfully solicited.

1866. SPRING TRADE. 1866.

IN OPENING THE
SPRING TRADE,
I would return my most grateful thanks to the citizens of Petersburg and the surrounding country for the very liberal patronage extended the past season, and hope to merit its further continuance by holding out still further inducements.
My present facilities are beyond doubt unequalled, and no effort will be spared to place before our patrons Goods
AT THE LOWEST PRICE,
that the present market value will admit of, and in many instances much below, as we are constantly represented at the large auction sales, where goods are frequently sold much less than cost of importation. These, with Many Other Available Facilities,
I pledge myself to use to the best interest of our customers.
The stock is now much larger and better assorted than at any time previous, having added a complete assortment of
HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS,
Among them the most elegant
Satin Damask,
Lace and Muslin Curtains,
Wine Cloths,
Piano and Table Covers,
Stair Linen,
Linen Druggets,
Table Linen,

—ALSO—
WHITE GOODS,
Of which I have always kept a good stock, is now replete with everything the market affords. Besides, a very handsome stock of Needlework,
Edgings, Insertings,
Laces and Embroideries.

THE STOCK OF
LADIES' DRESS GOODS,
Must be seen to be appreciated, I therefore invite all to an inspection, and in catering so well for the ladies, I would assure the gentlemen they have not been forgotten. The assortment of Cloths,
Cassimeres,
—AND—
Furnishing Goods Generally,
Is complete, and it is hoped those in want of goods of this class will not fail to give us a call.
To the Merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, who have so liberally patronized us the past season, I return my most grateful thanks, and solicit an early call, assuring them they will find our goods at as low prices as any house North or South.
